

Question	Answer
Is a web app too much/too less for the purpose of the Komplexpraktikum?
Should we hardcode a cron job setting or should it be configurable by the user?
Which patient data besides the name should be displayed inside the frontend?
Should we hardcode the database settings (port, host) or make it configurable?
Is it sufficient, when the error messages just print the stack trace?
Is a password for security reasons desired?	